
CONTENTS

Introduction	5
Chapter One: What is Empathy?	9
Why bother with empathy? / Deep down we're all the same / Feel for yourself so you can feel for others / Empathy building can be tough on your emotions / Self-pity is not empathy / Self-disgust, shame, and guilt can motivate you to change / Everyone benefits from empathy / Assignments
Chapter Two: How My Sexual Behavior Affects Others	17
The effects of sexual abuse go deep and may last a lifetime / "Hell is for children" / Sex crimes against children / No child wants to be abused / Being sexually abused as a child is devastating / Being raped is like getting a life sentence for a crime you didn't commit / Myths about rape / Common, long-term consequences of being raped / Assignments / Statement of responsibility
Chapter Three: The Four Poisons	31
The first poison: selfish urges / The second poison: anger / Anger escalates if you let it / Break the cycle of anger with empathy / When you live violently, you can't practice empathy / The third poison: twisted thinking / The fourth poison: denial / Antidotes to the four poisons / Assignments
Chapter Four: How to Build Empathy	47
Work on understanding how those you dislike feel / Practice good humor / Set aside time to be alone / Give yourself permission to feel your emotions / Staying self-absorbed is the opposite of empathy / Think before you act / Share with others / Be prepared for people to disbelieve you / Assignments
Chapter Five: Compassionate Action	57
Compassion is not a sign of weakness / Give to others / Assignments
Chapter Six: Becoming a Better Person	63
Balance - what does keeping my life balanced mean? / The whole is the sum of its parts / Respect and trust / Understanding / Measure your progress through the four stages / Do you want to be bitter or better? / It's worth it / List of feelings / Assignments / Points to remember when practicing empathy and compassionate action
NEARI Press Titles	78